

Smart Card Solutions:-

We have been helping SCS with their business development

Their expertise lies in the development and implementation of Card Operating Systems and Applications and was founded in 1992 to exploit developing smart card technologies.

The company has provided services to a number of household names including supplying the public with credit and charge cards.

They have also developed the worlds first passport and citizen card that is now in full operation.